NOTICE

ANTI-RAGGING AFFIDAVIT: A MANDATORY DOCUMENT

Ragging is heinous crime which is to be stopped completely. The Supreme Court has termed “RAGGING” as a Criminal Offence and is punishable under the court of law.

As per the order of Hon'ble Supreme Court, each student must submit an Anti-Ragging Affidavit signed by self and a separate affidavit signed by parents at the time of taking admission/Registration. Students' availing hostel accommodation are also required to submit another set of affidavits (by self & parents) in addition to the affidavit given to the college.

Accordingly, all the students are hereby informed to fill the online Anti-Ragging Affidavits during their summer break as per below mentioned procedure. After filling online form, a hard copy of the same duly signed by self and parents separately may also be submitted at the time of registration.

Students' who intend to take hostel accommodation during the next academic session 2018-19 are required to submit another copy of the same affidavits duly signed by self & parents in the Hostel.

Procedure for online Anti Ragging Affidavits

To fill/apply for the affidavits from the website, the student should follow these steps:

Step-I: Visit www.antiragging.in Important Links www.amanmovement.org.

Step-II: Fill up the application as per the requirements mentioned in the application form.

Step-III: On completion of the application form and submission, the student will receive the affidavit through his/her email. He/ She can take the print of the affidavits, put his/her signature of the parents on the parents' copy and submit the same to the respective class coordinator for further handing over to the Office of the Registrar. Hostellers are required to submit another set of copies duly signed by parent and student to the Hostel Warden.
